Announces

Land Law Conversations

An occasional series of discussions on topics concerning land in Hong Kong

Small House Policy, Custom and Article 40 of the Basic Law

The right of New Territories indigenous males to build a house in their ancestral village is never far from the headlines and is the subject of the first of our lunchtime discussions.

What is the Small House Policy? What exactly was the custom which preceded the policy? How do the two relate to the enigmatic Article 40 of the Basic Law? What are the views of the indigenous community? Is the policy abused and what are the prospects for change? These are some of the questions which will be explored in conversation between people familiar with the issues.

Joining in will be Johannes Chan, Say Goo, Junius Ho and Malcolm Merry.

Wednesday, 15th January 2014, starting at 1pm
Room 901, 9th Floor, Cheng Yu Tung Tower, University of Hong Kong

Light refreshments will be available.

If you would like to take part or attend, please notify Flora Leung at fkleung@hku.hk on or before Thursday, 9 January 2014.
