Professor Horn will provide a paramount view of international arbitration in the banking and financial sector (as compared with State court litigation) and describe some differences in the European and Asian approaches. A subject by subject analysis will highlight some areas of arbitral practice such as credits, export financing, financial markets instruments, MNAs, sovereign debtors and investment arbitration.

Professor Norbert Horn is Professor of Private Law, German and International Business and Banking Law, and Legal Philosophy, and Director (emeritus), Banking Law Institute, University of Cologne. He is an independent Arbitrator, Mediator, and Legal Counsel. Since 1998, he is also professor, Graduate Group in International Commercial Law, University of California, Davis, and since 1996, an honorary professor of China University of Political Science and Law. Professor Horn's areas of specialisation include German and International Contract Law, Banking and Financial Law, Companies and Joint Ventures, Commercial and Investment Arbitration, and Monetary Law. He has more than 300 publications in German, English, French, Spanish and Italian, including most recently Arbitration and Electronic Communication: Public Policy, (2009) Int. A. L. R. 107-113; and Current Use of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules in the Context of Investment Arbitration, Vol. 24/4 Arbitration International (2008) 587-602.
