The Evolution of Compliance: From Afterthought to Corner Office

Bénédicte NOLENS
Senior Director and Head of Risk & Strategy
Securities and Futures Commission

Wednesday, 2 November 2016, 12:30 – 1:30 pm
New Venue: Large Moot Court, 2/F Cheng Yu Tung Tower, HKU

Synopsis The global financial crisis unveiled cracks in the system, and by doing so, propelled chief compliance officers from afterthought to the corner office. Regulators worldwide advocated the importance of solid risk governance and risk culture. In this lecture we will explore the flaws and the fixes, including the growing connection with technology, and the overriding importance of customer centricity and the moral compass.

Speaker bio Bénédicte is Senior Director and Head of Risk and Strategy of the SFC. She also leads the SFC Fintech Contact Point, and is the Vice Chair of the IOSCO Committee on Emerging Risks. Before joining the regulator, she spent 15 years as a compliance practitioner with leading financial institutions. In January 2016, Bénédicte received a China Daily Asian Women Leadership Award, recognizing women who are role models in entrepreneurship, innovation, charity and the empowerment of women.
