

HKU FinTech Day

as part of the 2019 FinTech Education Series @ Hong Kong FinTech Week

www.hkufintech.com

8 November 2019 (Friday), 2:00pm – 5:00pm
Large Moot Court, 2/F Cheng Yu Tung Tower
The University of Hong Kong

The University of Hong Kong will be hosting its third FinTech Day on November 8 to share the success of its academic leadership in FinTech. The event will bring together renowned academics and key industry players to discuss cutting-edge research at the intersection of science, technology, and entrepreneurship.

You will also be the first to witness the announcement of new initiatives, such as the launch of HKU FinTech Index Series and the launch of The REGTECH Book.

Join us in the celebration of HKU's research and teaching in FinTech. Don't miss vibrant discussions on the latest topics including Digital Banking, Artificial Intelligence, and Virtual Assets, as well as how educators can meet market demands for new skills.
