Islamic Finance and ADR

Amirali Bakirali Nasir

Solicitor and Founding Partner of the Nasirs Law Firm

Tuesday, 6 May 2008, 1:00-2:00 pm

Hunter Room, Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre 38/F, Exchange Square Two, Central

The speaker, Amirali Bakirali Nasir, will give an introduction to Islamic principles of Shari'ah and subsidiary authority from which the principles of Islamic economics, Islamic finance and Islamic instruments are derived. Some important Islamic instruments will be described as well as two examples of Islamic projects. The cultural and jurisprudential aspects, which would make ADR more favourable for resolving disputes arising out of these instruments, will be introduced.

Amirali Bakirali NASIR is a solicitor and founding partner of the Nasirs Law firm. He is a council member of the Law Society of Hong Kong and an accredited mediator. He is past chairman and trustee of the Incorporated Trustees of the Islamic Community Fund of Hong Kong and on the Religious board of other Muslim organizations in London and Hong Kong. He is a co-opted member of the Equal Opportunities Commission of Hong Kong. Mr Nasir has been involved with finance companies and Mudaaraba companies in various aspects of banking and finance of property development and construction. He has also been involved in establishing Qard – e - hasana schemes and related documentation in Hong Kong, and advised on Shari'ah compliant schemes for commerce and establishing Shari'ah compliant trusts in Hong Kong.
